

the directory of residential camps advertising guide

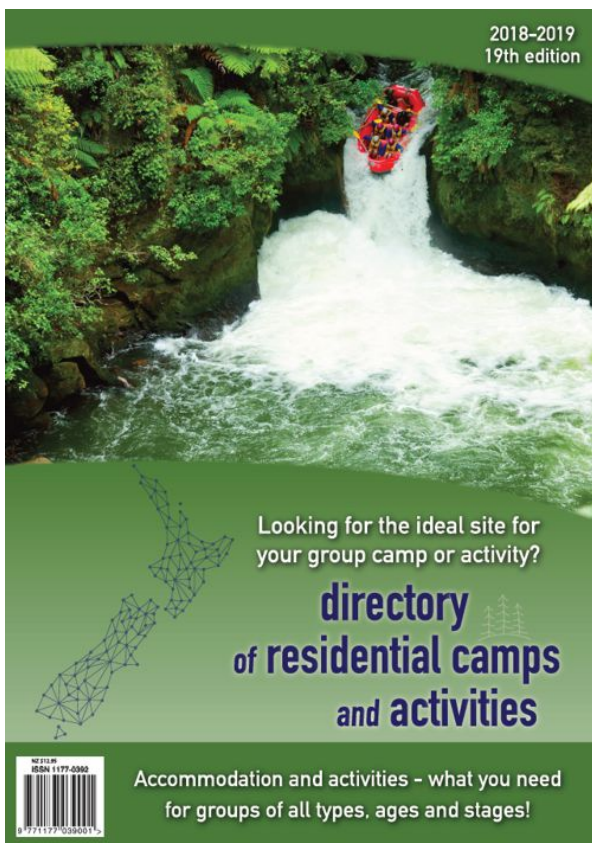

The Directory of Residential Camps is the first step in organising group accommodation and activities.

The Directory's target market is groups that are looking for suitable accommodation and/or activities.

It is distributed free to all schools and information centres nationwide, with an annual circulation of around 7000 copies.

The Directory is also available through information Centres, libraries, teachers' centres, government agencies, some magazine outlets and youth groups throughout New Zealand. The cover price is $12.95.

The Directory is in full colour and on our web site www.camps-directory.co.nz
